Update Your Canada Personal Tax Credits and Source Deductions Returns

Canada Tax Credits and Deductions

The federal and provincial Personal Tax Credits Return forms certify the tax credits you claim for your tax withholding elections.

The Canada Federal government uses Form TD1, Personal Tax Credits Return, and each of the following provinces and territories have their own version of Form TD1: Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Labrador, Nova Scotia, Northwest Territories, Nunavut, Ontario, Prince Edward Island, Saskatchewan, and Yukon.

The province of Quebec uses Form TP-1015.3-V, Source Deductions Return (English) or Formulaire TP-1015.3, Déclaration pour la retenue d'impôt (French).

Important If you have a change in circumstance that requires an updated Personal Tax Credits Return or Source Deductions Return and you do not submit an updated form, you may be subject to penalties from the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) or Revenu Quebec (RQ).

Update Your Canada Federal Personal Tax Credits Return

If your tax status or situation has changed, update your Federal Form TD1, Personal Tax Credits Return.

Complete this form if one of the following situations applies:

- You have a new employer or payer, and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, employment insurance benefits, or any other remuneration.
- You want to change amounts you previously claimed (for example, the number of your eligible dependents has changed).
- You want to claim the deduction for living in a prescribed zone.
- You want to increase the amount of tax deducted at source.

Note Remember to update your provincial Personal Tax Credits Return or Source Deductions Return when you update your Federal Form TD1, if required.

Navigation: Myself > Pay > Income Tax > Things I Can Do > Add/Change Personal Tax Information

1. At the Personal Tax Information page, from the Add/Change Personal Tax Information section, select the Federal Personal Tax Credits Return (TD1).
2. In the Non-residents section, indicate whether you are a resident of Canada.
 - If you are a resident of Canada, continue to the next section.
 - If you are not a resident of Canada, select I am a non-resident of Canada, and then indicate your country of permanent residence and whether your world income is included in determining your taxable income.
3. In the More than one employer or payer at the same time section, indicate whether you have more than one employer:
 - If you do not have more than one employer, continue to the next section.
 - If you have more than one employer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another form, select the checkbox, and then continue to the end of the form.
4. In each section, for Lines 2 – 12, select the section header and enter the required details for each credit you are claiming.
5. In the Total Claim Amount field, confirm that the amount is correct and update your previous responses, if required.
6. If applicable, in the Additional tax to be deducted field, enter an amount to be withheld each pay period.
7. If applicable, in the Deduction for living in a prescribed zone field, enter the appropriate deduction amount.

Note Select the Full Instructions link to view complete details on the prescribed zone deduction requirements.

8. If applicable, select the Total income less than total claim amount option.

Note If you select this option, the sections for Lines 2 – 12 are unavailable and the Total Claim Amount on Line 13 is set to $0.

9. At the top of the page, select Next.
