Filing an ADA accommodation claim

Dealing with a disability is challenging. Working with a disability can become more manageable if you're eligible for the accommodations provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Unum offers services to help your employer understand the accommodations you may need. We also provide support to help put these accommodations in place for you.

So, whether you need to work from home temporarily or get special equipment to perform your job in the workplace, starting the process to receive an ADA accommodation is simple.

We're here for you

At Unum, we're dedicated to ensuring that all employees have equal opportunities in the workplace, including those with disabilities.

How to file your claim

Contact your HR team to start the claims process and determine your specific needs.

Talk with HR about

- The accommodation you need due to a medical condition
- The name and contact information of your physician

Let us do the rest

After you notify HR, Unum and your ADA specialist will work with your physician and employer to find the best way to meet your needs. They'll get back in contact with you and determine if any additional information is needed.
