

Paid Parental Leave Policy

Employees are eligible to take a leave of absence from work due to the birth, adoption or placement of a child under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended (ADA). The Paid Parental Leave Policy works in conjunction with FMLA, ADA and state regulations to provide employees with paid time off in the 12-month period following the birth or placement of a child. The purpose of parental leave is to enable the employee to care for and bond with a newborn, newly adopted or newly placed child. Paid Parental Leave is independent of, and in addition to, the six (6) weeks of Pregnancy Leave available to birthing parents immediately following childbirth, as discussed further below. This policy applies to births, adoptions or placements that occurred on or after January 1, 2023.

Please also refer to the Family and Medical Leave (FMLA) and Leave of Absence Policy section of the Employee Handbook for further information regarding employee benefits under FMLA, ADA, and Short Term Disability (STD).

Parental Leave

RealPage, Inc. will provide all full-time, regular employees, up to six weeks of paid leave compensated at 100% of their weekly rate of base pay during the 12-month period immediately following the birth of an employee's child or the placement of a child with an employee in connection with adoption or foster care. Paid Parental Leave will run concurrently with any other state leave benefits and will not result in over 100% of your weekly base pay. Parental leave can be taken in no less than 14 calendar day increments. Advanced notice is required for parental leave taken in increments and is subject to manager approval based on business needs.

State Paid Leave

RealPage Parental Leave runs concurrently with state Paid Family and Medical Leave. RealPage Parental Leave payments will be paid as a supplement to the state provided benefits for the first six weeks of leave. The supplemental payments are paid through our Third-Party Administrator, Unum. Please contact leaves@realpage.com for more information.

Requesting Parental Leave

RealPage Benefits, in partnership with Unum, is the administrator of the Leave of Absence process. To initiate a parental leave, contact leaves@realpage.com or Unum at <https://portal.unum.com/>. Additional instructions for filing a leave can be found via the Benefits SharePoint site. Employees must provide at least 30 days' notice of the requested leave (or as much notice as practicable if the leave is not foreseeable).

Eligibility

All regular, full-time teammates in the U.S who are scheduled to work 30 or more standard hours per week are eligible 3 months after date of hire.

Employees must meet the following criteria:

- Be a full-time, regular employee at the time leave begins (temporary and part-time employees are not eligible for this benefit).
- Be a parent of a newly born or newly adopted child or a foster child who has been newly placed in employee's home (in either case, the child must be age 17 or younger).
 - The adoption of a stepchild is excluded from this policy.

Eligible employees will receive a maximum of six weeks of Parental Leave for the birth, adoption or placement of a child/children. A multiple birth, adoption or placement occurs (e.g., the birth of twins or adoption of siblings) will not increase the total amount of Parental Leave granted for that event. In addition, in no case will an employee receive more than six weeks of Parental Leave in a rolling 12-month period, regardless of whether more than one birth, adoption or foster care placement event occurs within that 12-month time frame.

When both parents are RealPage employees who meet eligibility guidelines, each parent is entitled to six weeks of Parental Leave.

Additional information:

- Employees must take Parental Leave in no less than 14 calendar day increments.
- Employees must use all Parental Leave during the 12-months following the event or any remaining time will be forfeited.
- Upon separation of the individual's employment, the employee will not be paid for any unused Parental Leave for which they were eligible.

Coordination with Other Policies:

Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA)

- Parental Leave taken under this policy will run concurrently with leave under FMLA.
- The leave will be counted toward the 12 weeks of available FMLA leave per 12-month period.
- All other requirements and provisions under the FMLA will apply.
- An employee who takes Parental Leave who does not qualify for FMLA leave will be granted the same level of job protection as if the employee were on FMLA-qualifying leave.

Pregnancy Leave

- Full-time, regular employees who give birth to a child are entitled to six (6) weeks of Pregnancy Leave, which runs concurrently with FMLA, immediately following childbirth. To be eligible for Pregnancy Leave, an employee must meet the requirements to receive short-term disability payments under RealPage's STD policy and provide appropriate verification and documentation to RealPage and the company's third-party STD carrier.
- Employees who are eligible for Pregnancy Leave will receive 100% of their weekly base pay for six (6) weeks regardless of birth type. The first week of Pregnancy Leave will be compensated by RealPage; beginning the second week of Pregnancy Leave, employees will be compensated through STD.
- Paid Parental Leave may begin at the conclusion of Pregnancy Leave and will be offset by any additional state provided benefits. In no event will compensation for employees on Pregnancy Leave or Paid Parental Leave exceed 100% of weekly base pay.
- STD payments will be made at 100% of weekly base pay for six weeks regardless of birth type.

Employee Benefits While on Leave

- The company will maintain all benefits for employees during Parental Leave period just as if they were taking PTO.
- Missed benefit premiums will be collected by taking double deductions upon return until the premiums are recouped.
- Scheduled holidays will not extend the total Parental Leave entitlement.

